Trainer's Pack

Our 2021 CHC30121 & CHC50121 Early Childhood Education and Care Trainers pack contains a range of materials that will make training easy, fun and comprehensive. Session plans and PowerPoint presentations are provided in editable format so you can make changes. As you know, nothing ever stays the same!

Session Plans

The session plans contain an overview of how content may be delivered over time. These can be used daily, weekly or for students working at their own pace. Trainers contextualise these using the red font as prompts to ensure they are compliant. There are a range of suggested activities that can be implemented to help students practice the concepts being taught.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. We have had non-compliance before with purchased materials, how do I know yours are compliant?

Our materials have been used for over 15 years and been commended by ASQA and TAC auditors for correct implementation of the training package, clear understanding of the National Quality Standards and an outstanding knowledge of the Children's Education and Care industry. The materials include a good volume of learning, are easy to read and provide an excellent learner experience. All materials are validated prior to purchase however you can change anything you would like.

Q. Is it a once-off purchase or are there ongoing costs?

You only pay once to use our materials. There are no ongoing licencing fees or per student charges with our packages.

Q Can we change the branding on the materials

Yes, you can! You can fully customise the materials to suit your needs. We just ask that you keep the publishing and copyright statement in all materials. You will have a legitimate licence showing proof of purchase for auditors.

Q. How can I purchase the materials?

Contact us now for more information.

<https://www.childcareresourcesaustralia.com.au/support/>

Q. Why buy Childcare Resources Australia's learning materials?

We own an RTO. It is in our best interests to have compliant materials, they are tried and tested by our Early Childhood Trainers and Assessors and are used by students in services Australia wide. Your writers are Early Childhood Educators, Teachers, Trainers and Assessors with industry and RTO experience!

Q. Who writes your materials?

Our materials are written in house by Karen Atkinson, CEO and her team. Large training organisations employ contract writers across different packages which means the materials are not contextualised to the industry. You know you will get the latest information and research in our high-quality Learning and Assessment materials.

Go to our website to find out why you need to get on board with us.

<https://www.childcareresourcesaustralia.com.au/for-educators/>

Q. Why don't you provide "simulated workplace" documents like policies, procedures and child examples?

The new training packages focus heavily on learners following policies and procedures. It is important to note that assessment must be undertaken within a regulated children services not a virtual environment.

Childcare Resources Australia understands that documentation changes frequently due to changes in the National Regulations, recent research findings and individual needs of the service. We provide active links to examples of policy procedure and industry current documents, and these are updated as required. Our materials are so easy to use, your students will love them! As you can adapt our materials you are also welcome to add your own policies and workplace documents to meet the needs of learners in your area.

Q. What am I NOT allowed to do?

It takes a lot of hard work, time and effort to produce our quality resources. On-selling or providing materials to a third party for use without a CRA licence agreement is illegal and immediately deems your contract void. If you know someone who would like to use our materials, we'd be more than happy to discuss options and a referral fee.

Please note: ASQA is aware of RTOs who are illegally using our materials and have been known to fully audit RTOs who have failed to produce a valid licence agreement. These RTO's are no longer operational. If as a licence holder you on sell materials illegally or pass to any third party your licence to use materials is revoked immediately and ASQA is notified. Other legal action including criminal charges will be laid for distributing or receiving stolen goods. We only want to work with honest and respectful people.

Q. How do I implement your materials into my RTO?

We know Early Childhood Education and Care can seem tricky, so we've done everything possible to help step you through how our materials can fit within your RTO. This includes a 'How-To' guide and instructional videos.

If you require additional help or have specific questions, we also include two 1-hour sessions in which you can ask the authors questions and get advice as to implementing the materials. You are also able to purchase additional support if required.
